Help Avoid The Summer Seasonal Slump

Summer is here! It's the time of year when families plan to go on vacations and sleeping in is a regular occurrence. Unfortunately, this rest and recreation often leaves pews empty and offering plates even emptier. EBC, like other churches, experiences a budget strain during the summer. We encourage families to go on vacation and try to prepare for the summer by setting aside extra funds wherever possible. Be reminded of 2 Corinthians 9:7: "So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver." Please be inspired to give online when you won't be attending service or pay your tithes and offering before taking summer vacations. It will help us to meet our church and ministry expenses which are no less during the summer.
