

Community Listening Sessions

with Racial and Social Justice Commissioner Vicky Castro

PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

During these listening sessions, Commissioner Castro would like to hear from Occoquan District residents - what is working well within the Prince William County government, Police Department, and School System in terms of equity, and what recommendations do you have for making these services more accessible and equitable to all County residents? Choose the session that is most convenient for you! Questions? Contact racialsocialjustice@pwcgov.org or 703-792-4680
